

Scholarship Program

General Information

As part of our new national educational awareness and activities program, the International Association of Web Masters and Designers (IAWMD) will administer student scholarships 4 times per year. These scholarships will vary in amounts starting at $500.00, plus corporate sponsored scholarship benefits and extras as available.

IAWMD scholarships are open to all junior and senior high school students, internationally. It was designed to help students who are seeking to continue their education and skills in the computer and information sciences and/or related fields, by attending college and/or university after graduation.

Requirements:

- Applicants should have a strong academic background (3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale).
- Applicants should provide a URL and information to a website(s) operated, designed, and/or programmed by the student.
- Applicants should provide a short essay (500 words or less) explaining why they believe they are the appropriate candidate to receive a scholarship from the IAWMD.
- Applicants are NOT required to have a student membership to the IAWMD to apply.

IAWMD Student Scholarship Application forms may be obtained online, via this website, by clicking on the "student scholarship application" link at the bottom of this page. Applications may also be requested from IAWMD Headquarters by mail to:
