Scholarship Guidelines

The Scholarship Program of the Peace Officers Memorial Foundation, Inc. and the Combined Law Enforcement Associations of Texas, Inc. (CLEAT) was developed from their strong sense of commitment to individual communities, and the CLEAT members who serve those communities. The requirements for application include:

- 1) The applicant's parent or guardian must be a member in good standing of CLEAT at the time of application for scholarship or a member in good standing at the time of their death.
- 2) Letter of Recommendation from an active CLEAT member.
- 3) Recipient must be a full-time student at the time of enrollment, taking at least 12 hours of college credit upon enrollment, or planning to be a full-time student at time of enrollment. (Class schedule or acceptance letter must be included with application.)
- 4) Attendance must be at an accredited junior college, community college or four-year college or university.
- 5) Scholarship funds limited to 2 per region, in the amount of $500 each.
- 6) Photo to be enclosed with application.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: May 1, 2004

Those interested in scholarship opportunities should submit a resume of school and community activities, no more than two pages, double spaced, and attached to a completed "Scholarship Information Form". Mail both to CLEAT, Scholarships, 400 West 14th Street, Suite 200, Austin, TX 78701. Applications that do not contain all material will be considered ineligible.

Selections by the CLEAT Executive Board Scholarship Committee will be final.
